5.3.2 Disciple-Making Framework

From Moment to Movement

5 Principles

- Simple enough to reproduce
- The Gospel is our curriculum
- The Holy Spirit is our Teacher
- Following Jesus is our objective
- Relationships are our vehicle

3 Relationships

- I invite you,
- You invite someone,
- We form a micro-group.

2 Rhythms

- Daily Surrender
- Weekly Accountability

THE POSTURE

HOW WE LEAD THE FOLLOW-UP

THE POSTURE

PERSONAL

Be personal — not programmatic.

INVITE

Invite — don't pressure.

LISTEN

Listen more than you talk.

SIMPLE

Keep it simple and reproducible.

Don't just say, "Join my group." Say, "Follow Jesus with me."

STEP 1: CONNECT

BEGIN WITH NAMES AND PRAYER

CONNECT

- Receive the names of students who indicated they want to take a next step with Jesus.
- Each Student Leader will receive 10 names.
- Pray for them by name before you reach out.

10 NAMES → PRAY BY NAME → REACH OUT PERSONALLY

STEP 2: INVITE

WITHIN 24 HOURS

INVITE — WITHIN 24 HOURS

Send a simple, personal text. Keep the invitation relational and clear.

FIRST TEXT

Hey [Name], this is [Your Name]. I'm a student at [school] and was part of the UniteUS event Tuesday night.

I'm reaching out because you attended UniteUS, and we're inviting students into a simple 30-day journey to get to know Jesus through the Gospel of Mark.

We'll read on our own during the week and get together for about 30 minutes to talk about what we're discovering and what it looks like to actually follow Jesus.

Would you be interested?

RESPOND TO THEIR RESPONSE

KEEP IT RELATIONAL

WHAT TO SAY NEXT

IF THEY SAY YES

Awesome! We're getting together [day/time] at [place]. I'd love for you to come.

I'll bring you a Following Jesus Journal and show you how the 30-day journey works. If you have a friend or two you'd like to bring, they're welcome too.

Can you make it?

IF THEY ARE HESITANT

No pressure at all. It's really simple. We're reading through Mark, getting to know Jesus, and talking together about what it looks like to follow Him in everyday life.

Come meet with us once, and then you can decide if you'd like to keep going.

NO RESPONSE — 48 HOURS

Hey [Name], just following up in case you missed my message. I'd still love to invite you to join us for the 30-day journey through Mark.

It's simple—read on your own, get together with a few others, and discover what Jesus is saying about following Him.

STEP 3: MEET & BEGIN

WITHIN 72 HOURS

MEET & BEGIN — WITHIN 72 HOURS

Keep it small: 3–5 students if possible.

CONNECT	Hear their story and what happened for them at UniteUS.
INVITE	Ask if they want to take the 30-day journey with you.
GIVE	Give a Following Jesus Journal to those beginning the journey.
EXPLAIN	Read four chapters of Mark each week using the journal.
SET THE RHYTHM	Decide when and where you'll meet each week.
BEGIN	Review the Daily Surrender and Weekly Huddle.

30-DAY READING PLAN

A SIMPLE JOURNEY THROUGH MARK

30-DAY READING PLAN

WEEK 1	Mark 1–4
WEEK 2	Mark 5–8
WEEK 3	Mark 9–12
WEEK 4	Mark 13–16
WEEK 5	Meet again to talk about what's next and multiplying.

WEEKLY READING

READ ON YOUR OWN. USE THE JOURNAL.

WEEKLY READING

- L LISTEN — What stands out as you read this chapter?
- H HEAR — What is Jesus showing you about Himself — or about you?
- O OBEY — What is one clear step you will take today?
- S SHARE — Who could you talk with about what you're learning?
- P PRAY — Where do you need God's help right now?

WEEKLY HUDDLE

30 MINUTES. SIMPLE QUESTIONS.

WEEKLY HUDDLE

1. What stood out this week?
2. What step did you take?
3. Where was it hard?
4. Who are you praying about inviting next?

Keep the conversation focused on hearing Jesus, obeying Him, and inviting others.

WEEK 5: WHAT'S NEXT?

Meet one more time and talk about what it looks like to continue following Jesus and help someone else do the same.

"Who is someone you could invite to follow Jesus with you?"

Help each student identify one person they could invite.

A movement of ordinary people multiplying disciple-makers in every place.
